Creating Life Out of a Thin Soul:

Renovating Your Life Journey by Finding Your Voice and Passion

Learn how to renovate your life journey to lead to fulfillment and success by finding your voice and passion. Penny will share her story of how she recreated her life in her mid-forties and learned to sculpt it into exactly what she needed. In 2006, Penny realized she had no career path, no retirement, was unhealthy, unhappy and in severe depression. She made a dramatic and life-affirming decision to change. She discovered living day-to-day is easy, but changing life day-to-day is empowering. She is now healthy and happy; she spends her days doing what she loves: working to improve society, writing poetry and building a new publishing company, Chatter House Press.
